

Cherokee Language Teacher Training Program 2022

Program Overview

The Cherokee Language Teacher Training Program is designed to create certified Cherokee language teachers. Applicants must be attending Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, OK pursuing a bachelor's degree in education and an Oklahoma state teaching certification in elementary education, early childhood education, or Cherokee language. After completing the first academic year of the Program, the students will sign a contract committing their services after graduation to the Cherokee Immersion Charter School or at one of the Cherokee Nation's cooperative satellite programs in public schools in the fourteen county-area.

A Selection Committee consisting of Cherokee Language Program & Cherokee Immersion Charter School staff will choose scholarship recipients. The awardees must demonstrate some knowledge of the Cherokee language upon application. In addition to attending their classes at Northeastern State University, the students will spend a total of 15 hours per week in the Program. This includes scheduled time in classrooms with teachers and students at the Cherokee Immersion Charter School, formal instructional time with Cherokee Language Program staff at Cherokee Nation, and other Cherokee Nation language related events. Upon successful completion of the Cherokee Language Teacher Training Program and receiving a degree in education at Northeastern State University, these students will have the necessary skills to be Cherokee language teachers in a classroom setting.

Should you have any questions about the scholarship, please contact the Cherokee Nation Language Program -

- Housing allowance up to $2,100 per semester (to be paid by midterm)
- Laptop to be provided (subject to equipment loan agreement)

Application Process

- Applicants will be required to write an essay between 500 to 1,000 words about why they want to participate in the program.
- Application will require test scores:
 - ACT (or equivalent; waiver discussed on case by case basis)
 - Cherokee Language Proficiency Test and/or Certification from Cherokee Language Program (testing can be scheduled by calling Anna Sixkiller at 918-453-5145 or by emailing language@cherokee.org).
- Official high school and/or college transcript
- Résumé/Related work history
- Applicants are required to submit correctly filled-in and complete applications by June 15, 2022 5pm Central Standard Time. Applications can be sent by email, delivered in person, or mailed (must be postmarked by deadline date). Scholarship will begin for the Fall 2022 term.
- Applications incorrectly filled-in or incomplete will not be considered.
- Applicants will be interviewed by Selection Committee to demonstrate some knowledge of Cherokee language.
- Applicants must agree to a full background check as part of application process.

Selection Process

- Selection Committee will consist of selected staff from the Cherokee Language Program and the Cherokee Nation Immersion Charter School.
- Participant selection will be based on a combination of factors and attributes, including knowledge of Cherokee language, enthusiasm for the Cherokee language, ability to complete long term goals and tasks, and relevant experience (for example, specific involvement and leadership in a tribal community, volunteer service, related job history, and other extra curricular activities related to Cherokee language, etc.).
- Decisions made by the Selection Committee will be final.

Participant Requirements

- Participants will be required to work a total of fifteen (15) hours per week in the program. This includes scheduled time in classrooms at the Cherokee Nation Immersion Charter School, formal instructional time with Cherokee Language Program staff at Cherokee Nation, and Cherokee Nation language related events.
- The participants will have one academic year as a Trial Period to decide if they want to continue with the program. If participants agree to continue after the Trial Period, they will be required to sign a contract stating that upon graduation they will commit to services at the Cherokee Nation Immersion Charter School or at one of the Cherokee Nation's cooperative satellite programs in public schools around the fourteen counties.
- Failure to fulfill the terms set forth in the contract will result in participants having to repay the scholarship amount incurred after the Trial Period (extenuating circumstances will be judged on a case by case basis).
- Two (2) times per semester, participants will be tested to demonstrate improvement of Cherokee language skills to the Selection Panel.
 - If sufficient improvement is not demonstrated via test results, counseling for participants will be given to alter study habits, work conditions, etc. to increase Cherokee proficiency.
 - If after counseling, sufficient improvement is not demonstrated, participants will forfeit further program participation and will be under no further obligation to the Program.
 - Tests will be developed by Cherokee Language Program and Cherokee Immersion Charter School staff.
- Participants will help develop classroom materials for Immersion students, including curriculum and lesson plans.

Cherokee Language Program Responsibilities

- Creation of a guided curriculum for participants which will aid them in developing the necessary Cherokee language skills needed to converse and eventually teach in a Cherokee language classroom setting.
- Provide supervision, mentorship and assistance to the participants as they learn Cherokee:
